Reflections from our Pastor

It's hard to believe February is already here. January went by so quickly.

Our church is in full swing. There is some activity happening every day of the week. We have multiple opportunities to impact our world for Christ.

As we get into 2016, can I give you some encouragements? Everything we do in life has an accumulative affect. Here are four important things to do:

☞ Every Day, Spend Some Time In The Word Of God And Prayer

Along with prayer, did you know that this year you can read through the entire Bible in just ten minutes a day? Need some help with this? Try this website: www.biblica.com. They have a one-year reading guide on their website.

☞ Come To Church Every Sunday

Sunday services are about two things: First, it's our opportunity to be part of what God is doing among us as a group. Second, Sunday services are times for you to worship God and receive insights into your walk with Him.

☞ Attend One Point Of Discipleship Every Week

One of our church's goals is to do "life together". You can do that in Connection Groups, WIC, Men's Breakfast, Bible Studies and a number of other ministries. The Christian life is lived better in small groups than alone!

☞ Find A Place To Serve !

Serving changes our perspective on life. Feeling alone or discouraged? The best turn around is to serve someone else! If you don't know where to start come see one of our pastors. We will point you in the right direction.

I'm looking forward to seeing all of you this week.

Sincerely,

Dr. David W. Price
Lead pastor

FROM DIRT TO DESK !!

Rosalind Zahn found herself serving in more than one volunteer role at the Church on one Monday in January. Early in the morning she was volunteering in the memorial garden caring for the vegetation and paths, when she was asked if she could help out in the office and fill in for the secretary who was not feeling well that morning. Zahn didn't hesitate, didn't change clothes or go home first. After cleaning up, she found humor in the situation, saying 'Here I go, from dirt to desk!'

Presented by Jim Caverly
TGO Resident

Thursday, February 18, 2016, 6:30 pm

Great Outdoors Community Church
Fellowship Hall
144 Plantation Drive, Titusville, FL

This program will provide information to assist those who are interested in preserving the life history of loved ones, both living and deceased. When you take the time to preserve the memories and life histories of those who are important to you, those memories become a treasure, a way of keeping the relationships alive, a way of continuing the comfort those relationships have provided when the loved ones pass on. We'll explore various methods for preserving and expanding life histories and memories, including the use of videos, audio recordings, photo books, digital frames, etc. An outline for obtaining life histories will be provided, as well as suggestions for recovering this information for those who are deceased.

Casey's aim is to bring hope to desperate women who live in cultures where there seems to be no way out. She plans to spend her life counselling and disciplining girls in their relationship with God, to strengthen and embolden them, and teach them sound biblical truth about their identity in Christ and the purposeful lives he has created

HOPE FOR KIDS MEXICO - Miguel Aleman is a small city just across the border from Roma, TX, and is best known for drug trafficking and poverty. In 2007 two Mexican pastors there began a school in their church with 55 students. It is the only school in their city to focus on the Bible and on teaching English. Christians from Michigan organized Hope for Kids to help them build their own school, Eagle College. ("Colegio" means "school" in Spanish.) It opened in 2014 with 180 students from Preschool
