THE TEXAS AND LOUISIANA FLOOD SURVIVORS

Over the weekend, Hurricane Harvey (a category 4 hurricane) slammed into the Gulf Coast, destroying homes and infrastructure in Texas. Houston, the fourth largest city in the U.S., has received over 50" of rain. Much of the city is under water. The torrential rains have stopped but now the people are facing catastrophic flooding, leaving Houston under water and levees in surrounding counties are poised to overflow. A state of emergency has now been declared for parts of Louisiana as Tropical Storm Harvey is bringing heavy rains. The recovery is going to take months and months.

Samaritan's Purse is already in the area. Their tractor-trailers are stocked with supplies and tools to aid in the cleanup efforts. They need volunteers to help the people return to some semblance of normal after the massive losses.

It would be hard for us to volunteer, but we can support the efforts with our donations. We are always concerned that our donations will be used properly. That is why GOCC has always worked with Franklin Graham and Samaritan's Purse in times of disasters. The Mission Team will be sending $1,500 to aid in this effort. Please join us with your donation by taking an envelope and write Hurricane Harvey Relief on the front. Next Sunday we will take a Love Offering at the door.

GOCC is a loving and generous group and our blessings go out to the people of Texas and Louisiana.
